Attached is a proposed letter from Office of General Counsel to the Department of Justice relative to the CIA actions concerning reporting of violations of Title 18 to the Department of Justice.

Please submit your comments on the letter to Policy and Plans Group by COB 21 October to allow for a consolidated Security position paper to be drafted. If there are any questions, please contact

1-2 It doesn't appear that the sentence in 1. concerning "total cooperation" is clear as to the intent - if it means interrogations must stop short of admission of culpability, then it should be omitted
